Cadiz, Octob. 1. N. S.

ADmiral Aylmer, with a Squadron of English Men of War, came to an Anchor in this Bay on the 21st of the last Month. They were saluted by the Guns from the Town, and the usual Visits and Compliments passed between the Admiral and the Governor of this Place; And this day the Admiral with the said Squadron sailed from hence for England. The Medway, Capt. Baker Commander, is gone to Tangier about the Business of the Redemption of Captives, and is shortly expected again in this Port. This day came in here 4 Spanish Men of War from Biscay, which are designed for the West-Indies, and 2 or 300 Soldiers are raising here to to be put on board them. The Katherine, Alexander Colson Commander, and six other Merchant Ships, are arrived here from London; as also the Maryland Merchant from Plimouth, the Mary Galley from the Canaries, the Good Hope from New-Castle, the Globe Galley from Newfoundland, and the Katherine from Bilboa.

Madrid, Octob. 8. The Court continues at the Escurial; And the King of Spain is in perfect Health. He has appointed the Marquis de Villa Franca, Councellor of State, to confer with the French Ambassador as his Commissary, in the room of the Cardinal of Cordova deceased. The Marquis de los Balbazes having resigned his Employment of Major-Domo Major, or Lord High Steward of the Queen's Houshold, is succeeded in that Employment by the Marquis de Castro Monte. The Duke of S. Juan left this Place on the 3d Instant, in order to repair to the Island of Sardinia, of which he is lately made Vice-Roy. The Duke d'Uzeda is made a Counsellor of State, and went from hence on the 5th on his Embassy to Rome.

Venice, Octob. 10. The Senate have chosen Signior Domenico Badover to be Captain-General of the Gulph. The Courier that was sent some days ago by the Senate to Vienna, to desire Leave for the German Regiments of Bareith and Saltzbourg, lately arrived here from the Morea, to pass thro' the County of Tyrol in their return home, is come back with the Emperor's Consent to what was desired, and the said Regiments are thereupon gone to Verona, from whence they are to continue their March home; But the Republick has resolved to keep in their Service the Regiment of Wirtemberg which came with them from the Levant. We have received Advice by a Ship lately come from the Levant, that the Men of War who have on board Signior Soranzo, Ambassador from this Republick to the Port, and his Retinue, had put into Corfou in their Voyage to Turkey. Our Letters from Constantinople of the 12th of the last Month give an Account, that the Grand Signior and his whole Court arrived there the 8th from Andrinople, as did likewise my Lord Paget, Ambassador from His Majesty of Great-Britain, and the Heer Colliers, Ambassador from the States-General to the Port. They write from Dalmatia, that the Venetian and Turkish Commissioners for settling the Limits continued their Conferences, and had proceeded in the execution of their Commission as far as Vargoratz.

Warsaw, Octob. 8. The Sieur Lezinsky, General of the Greater Poland, will depart from hence in 2 or 3 days on his Embassy to the Port. The Cardinal Primate is shortly expected here from Radzicowsky, the Senate being to assemble in few days, to consider how to raise the Sum due from this Crown to the Elector of Brandenburgk, pursuant to the Agreement lately made with his Electoral Highness about the Affair of Elbing. We have Letters from Lemberg of the 3d Instant, which give an Account, that the Bassa of Caminiec having received Advice, that Saroska, and the other Places in Moldavia, which the Polanders were to restore to the Ottoman Port, in pursuance of the Treaty of Carlowitz, were actually delivered up to the Turks, he marched out of Caminiec with the Garrison under his Command, and the Commissioners of Poland took possession of that City, into which they have put a good Garrison.

Copenhagen, Octob. 16. The Squadron lately fitted out by the King of Denmark's Order, which consists in 16 Men of War from 60 to 80 Guns, and 5 Frigats the least of 30 Guns, is in a readiness to go to Sea; and the Land Forces which are to be put on board these Ships, to wit, a Regiment of Marines, and a Draught of 22 Men out of each Company of Foot quartered in these Parts, are ordered to embark to morrow. In the mean time we have an Account from Sweden, that 4 Regiments of Foot, of 1344 Men each, lay at Carelscroone ready to be transported to Pomerin, and that a Squadron of 15 Men of War from 26 to 84 Guns, are appointed to Convoy them. The The King of Denmark's Journey to Holstein continues uncertain. Brigadier Krabbe is made Colonel of the King's Horse-Guards.

Vienna, Octob. 10. The Emperor having invited the Dutchess of Hanover to come hither, to be present at the lying in of the Queen of the Romans, her Daughter, we have received Advice that she intends to leave Modena on the 12th Instant on her Journey hither. The young Count of Raventlau is arrived here from Copenhagen with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, to notifie to the Emperor the Death of the late King of Denmark, and the Accession of the present King to the Crown. The Emperor has declared the young Count Windisgratz, First Deputy from the House of Austria at the Imperial Diet in the room of Count Lamberg, who is preparing for his departure from hence on his Embassy to Rome. Count Otting will be going from hence in a day or two on his Embassy to the Port; and an Express was sent this week to Belgrade, to give notice thereof to the Bassa of that Place, that so the Turkish Ambassador, who is coming hither, may be ready to meet Count Otting on the Frontiers between Belgrade and Peterwardin; the said Ambassadors having Orders to adjust the Dispute arisen between the Commissioners for settling the Limits concerning some small Places that are to be restored by the late Peace.

Hamburgh, October 20. An Extraordinary Courier arrived here last Saturday from Vienna, with some Dispatches for Count d'Eck, Envoy from the Emperour, who, immediately after the receipt of them, sent away two Expresses, the one to the Court of Denmark, and the other to the Court of Sweden, with Letters relating, as is supposed, to the Affair of Holstein, which the Emperor and several other Princes are endeavouring to accommodate. In the mean time we hear from Sweden that the Regiments which lay at Carelscroon, in order to be sent to Pomeren, had orders to embark the 21st Instant; and from Denmark they write, that the Squadron of Danish Men of War put to Sea on the 17th Instant, having Orders, as 'twas said, to oppose the Swedes, in case they attempted to transport any Forces to Pomeren. Our Letters from the Dutchy of Holstein say, the Duke of Holstein's Forces continue to work with great application on their new Forts, notwithstanding the great Inconveniences they suffer from the cold and rainy weather we have at present, and that they have already put some of these Fortifications in a posture of Defence.

Hague, Octob. 22. N. S. The King was present on the 20th Instant in the Assembly of the States-General, when the State of the Forces for the ensuing year was presented to them, and ordered to be sent to the several Provinces. This day His Majesty was in the Assembly of the States of Holland and West-Friesland. The Deputies from the several Colleges of the Admiralty continue assembled here, and confer frequently with the Deputies of the States-General touching several Matters relating to the Fleet. Count Dhona, late Envoy from the Elector of Brandenburgh to the King, has had his Audience of Leave of His Majesty, and will go from hence in 2 or 3 days on his return to Berlin. The Sieur Mello has presented his Credentials to the States as Resident from the King of Poland.

Hague, Octob. 24. N. S. The King intended to embark yesterday morning for England, and the Yachts were accordingly fallen down to the Pits, in order to receive His Majesty on Board; But the Wind coming about to the South-West as it still holds, His Majesty continues here with a Resolution to embark with the first fair Wind. His Majesty has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable the Earl of Selkirk to be his Envoy Extraordinary, to Compliment the King of Denmark upon the Death of the late King his Father, and his own Accession to the Crown.

Paris, Octob. 24. N. S. The King, accompanied with the Dauphin, the Duke and Dutchess of Burgundy, and the Dukes of Anjou and Berry, returned on the 22d Instant from Fontainbleau to Versailles; and the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans came to the Palace Royal in this City. The Marquis de Cassares, Ambassador from the King of Portugal, arrived here last Sunday from Holland, and has since had Audience of the King. The Marquis de Villacerf, Steward of the Household to the Dutchess of Burgundy, and Surveyor-General of the King's Buildings, died here last Sunday; The King has granted to his Widow a Pension of 6000 Livers a year during her Life. Major-General De la Fare, whom the King had lately made Governor of Schelestadt in Alsace, died some days ago, and that Government is given to Monsieur Preschat. Monsieur de Lauboutie, Major General, is made Governor of the Fort of New Brisac in Alsace.

Bristol, Octob. 14. The Nightingale, Tho. Swayn Master, from Nevis, and the Supply from Newfoundland, arrived here last Thursday. This day came in here the Friendship of this Port, John Rogers Commander, from Norway, and the Susanna of Brighthelmstone from Rotterdam.

Deale, October 17. This Morning arrived here the Anne Galley, Captain Creems Commander, from Malaga, who says, that he left Vice Admiral Aylmer with the Squadron of His Majesty's Ships under his Command about 30 Leagues to the Westward of Sicily, so that it's thought they may by this time be in the Channel. The Mull Frigate, Captain Whitehorne Commander, arrived here yesterday from Lisbon; The Gosfreight, Capt. Harrison Commander, and the Herne, Capt. Allen, both for the East-Indies; The Delavall commanded by Capt. Minster, and the Paget Frigat by Captain Williams, both bound to Guinea; The Lowther Galley, Capt. Lowther, for Cadiz; The Lawrell, Capt. Banks, for the Straights; And divers other outward-bound Merchant Ships are now under sail for the Westward.

Whitehall, Octob. 18. The King went on board the William and Mary Yacht in the Maese on Monday last, about Three in the Afternoon; and yesterday at Eleven in the Morning His Majesty landed at Margate, being attended in his Passage by several other Yachts, and a Squadron of Men of War under the Command of Sir Cloudesly Shovell. His Majesty lay last night at Canterbury, and came this Evening to Kensington. The General Joy for His Majesty's Safe Return, was expressed in London and Westminster, (as 'twas likewise in the other Places thro' which His Majesty passed) with Ringing of Bells, Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Demonstrations of Zeal and Affection.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having received a Paper dated the 14th of this Month, signed M. G. giving an Account, That several Parcels of Merchants Goods have been carried to, and brought from Foreign Parts in His Majesty's Ships which have been sent thither; Their Lordships do give Notice, That if the Person who wrote the said Paper will attend them at their Office, and make out what he alleages, he shall have all fitting Protection and Encouragement.
